Will Teach Art Classes In County

Leni Stokes, an artist that has moved into the Concord area, will open an Art Class in Appomattox in Oil Painting beginning September 7. She is arranging to hold classes morning, afternoon and evening.

Leni was educated in Germany, having finished four semesters of art. She also had several years of oil painting under Professor Ruger from Desden, Germany. She left Germany in 1955 and opened her business in New York City restoring paintings and antiques. She is listed at the Metropolitan Museum of Art as a Restorer of Paintings. She held private classes in Art in New York.

Leni moved to Appomattox County in July of 1975 where she now has her private studio, antique restoration, paintings, murals, gold leafing and French Polishing.

Those interested in taking the oil painting class beginning September 7 are asked to phone 804-993-3108 to enroll.

The TIMES-VIRGINIAN has a complete stock of Grumbacher art supplies. Art students will be given a 10% discount on purchases. You are invited to stop by the office of the TIMES-VIRGINIAN and see what we have to offer.

MRS. JAMES HOWARD O'BRIEN, III
the former Miss Sarah Marie Hunter

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Sarah Marie Hunter to James Howard O'Brien, III took place Saturday evening, August 28 at seven o'clock at "Deerfield", the home of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose B. Hunter, Jr. of Red House and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. O'Brien, Jr of Chase City.

The Reverend James G. Thompson and the Reverend Omar G. Burnette officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of ivory chiffon. The empire bodice of peau d'ange lace had a high neckline, and long fitted sleeves with ruffled cuffs accented with pearls. The gathered skirt featured an inset with pearls. The gown had a full chapel-length train. She wore a mantilla edged in peau d'ange lace which fell from a camelot cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a colonial-style nosegay of white daisies, minature carnations and yellow roses.

Mrs. John S. Hubbard, Jr. of Lynchburg and Mrs. Harry L. Redd of Windsor, sisters of the bride, were matrons of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Samuel B. Hunter, sister-in-law of the bride, of Burkeville. Miss Margaret S. Hunter and Miss Laurie H. McLean, cousins of the bride, of Appomattox: and Miss Ann Ashby O'Brien of Chase City, sisters of the groom. All attendants wore dresses of green and yellow chiffon over taffeta and carried baskets of daisies.

Mr. O'Brien was his son's best man and the ushers were Samuel B. Hunter, brother of the bride, of Burkeville, and David L. O'Brien, cousin of the groom of Richmond; also, Henry F. Smith of Richmond, Richard N. Partin, of Hopewell, J. A. Devin of Wyllieburg, Bob Harris and Dale Langford of Chase City.

Dr. John B. Cunningham, organist of Lynchburg and Mrs. Frank Hancock, cousin of the bride, of Bluefield, W. Va. presented a program of nuptial music.

Mrs. William A. Hunter, cousin of the bride, of Appomattox served as mistress of ceremonies.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter entertained with a reception on the lawn. Assisting with the reception were Miss Ann Page Petty, Miss Martha Hunter, Mrs. William A. Hunter, Jr., Mrs. Thomas D. Evans, Jr., Mrs. John E. McLean, Mrs. John H. Denny, and Mrs. Charles M. Rush.

The bride is a graduate of Prince Edward Academy and of The Medical College of Virginia School of Pharmacy.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Bluestone High School and of The University of Richmond. He is presently employed with Dun and Bradstreet in Richmond.

After the wedding trip the couple will live in Richmond.

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

Miss Carol Ann Jennings of Danville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Jennings of Crewe, and James Allen Pollock of Lynchburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pollock of Oxford, Pa., were married Saturday, August 28 at 3:00 p.m. in Lynchburg at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Fitch, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

The Rev. Ralph Jackson of Lynchburg performed the double-ring ceremony.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home.

The bride earned her B.A. degree from Virginia Commonwealth University and her M.S.L.S. degree from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill.

The bridegroom received his undergraduate degree from Lincoln University and his master's degrees from New Mexico Highland University and from the University of Kentucky. Both are employed by the Virginia Community College System.

Following a northern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Gretna, Va.

To Celebrate 25th Anniversary

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Noble wish to extend an invitation to family and friends to join in the celebration of their parents' 25th Wedding Anniversary.

The anniversary celebration will take place on Sunday, September 5th at two o'clock in the Appomattox County Rescue Squad Building.

MRS. RONALD WAYNE DUFFEY
The former Miss Wanda Sue Bryant

Wed In Evening Ceremony

On August 7 at 7:00 in the evening, Miss Wanda Sue Bryant and Ronald Wayne Duffey were united in marriage at Spring Creek Baptist Church, Darlington Heights, Va.

The church was decorated with pink and white glads surrounded by greens and lighted cathedral candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Bryant of Cullen and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Duffey of Keysville.

The double ring ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Clyde Sears, pastor of Spring Creek Baptist Church. A program of nuptial music was provided by Ric Peters, soloist, and Mrs. Janet Robinson, organist.

Mr. Duffey served as his son's best man. Ushers were Warren Bowman of Drakes Branch, L. B. and Lynn Duffey of Keysville, both brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church social hall following the ceremony.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will live in Cullen.

To Hold Reunion
